The white advantage in the Q-nn ending after 10... Nb3! etc. does not seem to be sufficient for a win. Moreover, 10. Kg3 does not win due to 10... Nd2 (not Ne5).

In the correction, the play after 10. Kg3 (now the mainline) is quite subtle although similar to the original study.

The correction is incorrect due to 10. Be6+!. The idea of a retrospective tourney of the 1940/41 studies of "Shakhmaty v SSSR" was critized by John Roycroft (EG no. 91, p. 346):

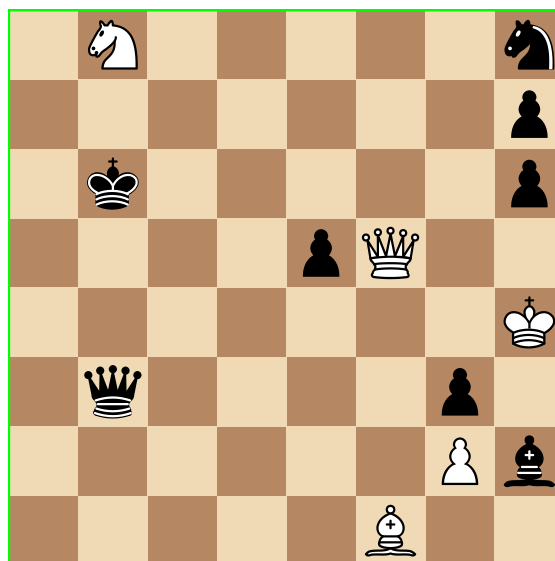

"For me this tourney combines eerie nostalgia with the sacrilege of disturbing a graveyard. We can enjoy and appreciate classic studies and great names alongside unknowns, but to pit the dead against each other, and against the living, and to award them prizes, lacks taste."
